Local POLICE ALERT Message from PC Rob MORANT

I have been informed of a People's Post Code Lottery scam that has been sent to a resident in Copythorne letting them know they had won £825,000; fortunately they did not call the company or pay the release fee. Please be aware of this scam and if you receive a letter that appears to be too good to be true please report it to Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040 as they collate the information on these letters for investigation.

Further details can be found by searching 'peoples postcode lottery scam' on the internet and there are sample images of the letters being sent. Please contact me if you would like further details

HAMPSHIRE NEIGHBOURHOOD POLICING

You may be interested to join Hampshire Police and Crime Commissioner Simon Hayes in a discussion on maintaining neighbourhood policing in times of austerity on Thursday 12th February 2015, 14:30- 16:30 at Basingstoke Discovery Centre, Festival Place, Basingstoke when he will be asking the Chief Constable, Andy Marsh how the police are addressing the challenges of resourcing local policing with ever tightening budgets. There will be a Q&A session for members of the public to ask Simon and Andy their questions on this topic.

To register your interest in attending and submit your questions (which must relate to Maintaining Neighbourhood Policing in Times of Austerity), please contact the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner by midday on Friday 6th February: Tel 01962 871595 or Email opcc@hampshire.pnn.police.uk
