

The Hundred And One Dalmatians

The Lyndhurst Drama and Musical Society is staging Dodie Smith's much loved children's story for their show in January/February 2017.

Pongo, a Dalmatian dog and his Missis live with their human pets Mr & Mrs Dearly. With their first litter on the way the nervous parents become very worried with the arrival of a long lost friend of Mrs Dearly, Cruella de Vil. Cruella is an obsessive fur collector and becomes enraptured when Missis produces fifteen puppies.

Find out what happens when the puppies are kidnapped and an urgent rescue operation is mounted!

Performance dates for this great family show are Friday 27 January (7.30), Saturday 28 January (6.00), Sunday 29 January (2.30), Friday 3 February (7.30) and Saturday 4 February (2.30). Tickets are £9 adult and £6 child.

Tickets are available from the Lyndhurst Community Centre from 21 December. Phone enquiries to 02380 282729.
