

Thought for the Week

Many of us have wished we could have met Jesus and spent some quality time with him, listening to his words and asking questions. Sometimes it feels as if we have missed out compared with those who were lucky enough to have lived alongside our Lord. Yet today's passage points out that far from lamenting our situation, we can rejoice, for what is available to us is infinitely better – we have Christ's Spirit living within us, helping us to understand Jesus and giving us the strength to follow him.

The transformation of the disciples gives us all hope. They went from a timid group who struggled to understand Jesus' message and hid away in fear, to leaders boldly preaching to thousands. Pentecost reminds us that there is a supernatural aspect to our faith, and this is not something to be feared but something to rejoice in, for the Spirit enables us all to be used by God regardless of our circumstances, weaknesses and struggles. Whenever we feel we are ineffective witnesses for Christ, let us not despair, but ask the Holy Spirit to come alongside us and empower us.

Praying as a Benefice

Please use the following text and prayer in quiet time; the text is from this Sunday's readings and the prayer is from Bishop Jonathan. Please pray either at noon or 5.55 pm (or both) every day.

This week's Bible Text

Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. (Acts 2: 3-4)

When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. (John 16: 13-14)

The Prayer

Glorious God,
You have taken hold of us and made us Your own. In the power of Your Spirit give us grace to press on in Your purposes, loving one another, learning together and living the mission of Him who calls us onwards, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Notices

8th Annual Plant and Cake Sale at Dunelm

Please accept a huge vote of thanks for the generous support you gave to the Plant Sale last Saturday. So many of you baked cakes, grew plants and donated items of bric-à-brac or bottles for the tombola stall. We can only apologise for the traffic problems on the day, the queues at the gate and at the refreshment table, but not for the chat and laughter that was heard at the event. All proceeds are to go to CAFOD's work in Ethiopia and the current total is in excess of £3,600 which is another record for the event. Plans are already afoot for the ninth sale which will be next May. With our good wishes and grateful thanks. Henry and Nuala Rosenvinge.

Collect

God, who as at this time taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them
the light of your Holy Spirit:
grant us by the same Spirit
to have a right judgement
in all things and evermore
to rejoice in his holy comfort;
through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen

Today's Readings

Acts 2.1-21 GNB NT 143
The disciples receive the Holy Spirit as was foretold by the prophets and promised by Jesus.

Romans 8.22-27 GNB NT 188
Paul says that the whole created order longs for Christ's return when death, decay and suffering will end. He encourages Christians to await this with confidence.

John 15. 26-27 GNB NT 134
As his death draws near, Christ reassures his disciples that they will not be left alone but will know the help of the Holy Spirit.
