HANDWRITING POEMS

Class 78

HUNGRY BOOKWORM

I love books. Yes, I love books.
Oh books, it's hard to beat you.
I give you long and loving looks
And then I slowly eat you!

Class 79

BOOKS

I like books
I really do.
Books with stories
And pictures, too!

Books of birds
And things that grow
Books of people
We should know.

Books of animals
And places too.
I like books
I really do!

Class 80

I OPEN A BOOK

I open a book and in I stride
Now nobody can find me
I left my chair, my house, my road,
My town and my world behind me.
I'm wearing a cloak, I've slipped on a ring
I've swallowed a magic potion.
I've fought with dragons, dined with a king
And dived in a bottomless ocean.

I opened a book and made some friends.
I shared their tears and laughter.
And followed their road with it's bumps and bends
To the happy ever after!
I finish my book and out I came.
The cloak can no longer hide me.
My chair and my house are just the same
But I have a book inside me.

99.	Flavoured Gin Exhibit in 1 x 250ml glass bottles, made to own recipe	£1.00	.60p	.40p

Recipes

Sea Salt Caramel Fudge

600 g sugar
250 ml double cream
50 g unsalted butter
sea salt

Method

Melt 200g of the sugar in a pan over a medium heat until golden, then beat in 400g more, along with the double cream, butter and 1 teaspoon of sea salt.

Cook, stirring, over a medium-high heat, until it reaches 118°C on a sugar thermometer (always be careful when boiling sugar).

Off the heat, beat with an electric mixer until thick. Pour into a lined 20cm x 20cm tin and spread out evenly with a spatula.

Sprinkle with a pinch of sea salt. Leave to cool. Chill in the fridge for 2 to 3 hours to set. Cut into 2 to 3cm squares.

Honey and Lavendar Shortbread

200 g plain flour
25 g caster sugar
125 g unsalted butter
2 tablespoons lavender honey
20 g lavender sugar , plus extra for sprinkling on top of finished shortbread

Method

Preheat the oven to 170°C/325°F/gas 3. Mix the flour and sugar together in a mixing bowl. Rub in the butter, then add the honey and lavender sugar. Push or roll it out until it's 1cm thick – do this directly on to a baking sheet lined with greaseproof paper so you don't have to move it. Once it's in the round shape, pinch the edges. If it splits or tears just press it back together – but remember, the less you work the dough, the shorter and better these biscuits will be. Score the lines on the shortbread to create 8 biscuits, sprinkle over some caster sugar, then pop the baking sheet into the oven and cook for 20 to 30 minutes. Keep an eye on it – you want a lovely dark golden colour. Take out of oven and leave to cool. Serve whole.

Recipe for lavender sugar

Ingredients

1 tablespoon culinary dried lavender
2 cups sugar

Method

Place the dried lavender in the bowl of a food processor and blend it for 10 to 15 seconds to chop it into small pieces.

Add 1 cup of granulated sugar to the processor and blend well, for 15 to 20 seconds, until the lavender is finely ground and mixed with the sugar. Whisk the lavender sugar together with the remaining cup of sugar until the lavender is well dispersed.

This homemade sugar blend, takes just a few minutes to make, and you'll be rewarded with a wonderfully scented sugar with a light lavender flavour. It can add to beverages (try it in lemonade or tea!) and baked goods. It will keep in an airtight container for 6 months.
